Good enough is not enough...

Where it comes to sexual assault reporting and forensic investigations...

The corner now

The process remains the same.

Follow these steps:

1. Immediately report the assault
2. Contact the local police
3. Provide a forensic sample
4. Comply with police procedures
5. Cooperate with the investigation

If you have evidence of sexual assault, report it to the police. They will provide you with the necessary assistance and support. If you have questions or concerns about the process, contact a lawyer or a sexual assault support organization. Sexual assault is a crime, and you have the right to be heard and supported. Together, we can work towards a world where sexual assault is not tolerated.

But more is needed to stop sexual assault.
